B. Qualitative Profile

Kilis 7 Aralık University (KIYU) is a public, non-profit Higher Education Institution in Türkiye, established by Law No. 5662, which was published in the Official Gazette on 29 May 2007 (No. 26536). Evolving from a deep-rooted regional education tradition, the institution has established itself as a comprehensive university dedicated to quality education, academic integrity, and social responsibility. It serves as a pivotal administrative and educational actor in the region, focusing on human capital development and the creation of evidence-informed public value.

The university's academic structure is organized into 12 faculties and one graduate institute, delivering a diverse portfolio of 29 undergraduate and 24 associate-degree programs. Education and research activities are conducted across three distinct campuses: the Central Campus, Karataş Campus, and Merçidabık Campus. KIYU prioritizes student-centered learning and employability-oriented competencies, utilizing systematic quality improvement practices to maintain an inclusive and supportive environment for its domestic and international student populations.

Research, innovation, and societal engagement constitute a strategic pillar for the university, which currently operates 11 specialized research and application centers. These centers are instrumental in facilitating applied research, regional development, and interdisciplinary collaboration. Internationalization is central to KIYU's long-term strategy, with the International Relations Office (IRO) managing sustainable international networks and leveraging EU-funded opportunities to enhance institutional performance, academic visibility, and governance standards.
